Software Developer (Fullstack).

Seeking a new opportunity with a growing company.

Career Objective

Throughout my career as a software developer I've focused on developing scalable and well documented code. I enjoy working collaboratively but can also run with projects on my own. Excited about the prospect of joining a product-driven organization.

Projects

Quiz Application

This project is a web application used to test people's intelligence by playing quiz games. The project consumes a random question generation API to fully function.

Technologies Used – HTML 5 , CSS 3 , JavaScript.
